"A Movement of the Spirit of God on Earth"

VOL. I, NO. 4.

MOSCOW, IDAHO, SATURDAY, JAN. 27, 1940.

10 CENTS A COPY.

YOUR first issue of the "Weekly" may have been late, but this was not our fault. The complete issue to all subscribers was placed in the Post Office in Moscow early Friday morning, Jan. 5th. I have just discovered that the magazines did not leave the local Post Office until Tuesday evening, Jan. 9th. As soon as I discovered this I at once got in touch with Mr. Ramsey Black, the Third Assistant Postmaster General in Washington, and I think I can promise our subscribers that no issue of this magazine will be allowed to lie in the local Post Office from Friday until Tuesday after this. It is unfortunate that this should have happened, and I have asked Mr. Black to make an investigation of the whole matter, and this unquestionably will be done.

I am convinced that the Postal Inspectors will be, and are just as fair as they possibly can be, and I think you will find that if I have just cause for complaint, I shall receive adequate consideration. I have that confidence in our American system of Government. I have that confidence in our Post Office Department. When "Psychiana" was first released, complaints began to flood into the Post Office Department in Washington. Of course, investigations were made, as they should have been made. These investigations, however, have not revealed cause for legitimate complaint because cause for complaint does not exist.

We recognize the fact, as we are sorry it is a fact, that there are such narrow-minded people in the world that they think that anyone who does not hold the same religious views they hold should be forever barred from releasing their views.

Attention Subscribers!

These newer views may contain much more religious truth than the older ones, yet, according to many narrow-minds, they must be automatically wrong, if not like theirs. "Psychiana" welcomes investigation of its entire operations any time. It has been investigated many times, and from a dozen different angles. When any religious organization can go through as many investigations as we have gone through, and still continue to operate, that movement must be pretty nearly as clean as a hound's tooth.

"Psychiana" is bringing to the human race a new conception of God. The Power of the Spirit of God is moving on the earth as a result of this Movement. It is strictly a religious Teaching, and it has the right, under the American Constitution, to give to the world its religious ideas. It has the same right as the Roman church or the Protestant church has. And speaking personally, I am convinced that, in the final analysis, this Movement will be protected from too much persecution by the very men who have investigated this Movement, and have failed to find in it cause for legitimate complaint.

I realize, of course, the power of politics. I could, if I cared to, write at quite some length on that subject. I could tell my readers some things which would make their blood boil, if I cared to, and I could show them from whence much of the persecution we have suffered has come. That, however, is water over the dam.

I have no desire to "raise the lid" on anything. I could, however, if I wished to. All this Movement asks from either the Post Office Department or any other department of the Government is the same right to tell men and women our conception of God, as is given to other religious organizations. The final proof of who is right or wrong will inevitably come from the general public itself. Had this Movement not been of the Spirit of God, it would have died a natural death a long time ago. But we find, instead, men and women all over the world telling in no uncertain terms what is being accomplished in their lives through the Power of the Spirit of God, as revealed to the world through "Psychiana." We are very satisfied to stand on that record. We wish the whole world could see it.

These are not days when religious organizations should be harassed just because they do not agree with "orthodoxy." These are days in which every new religious thought should be carefully studied. For not through the one who "blindly believes" is light apt to come. It has not come yet through the ages, and the chances are it never can come to the world through anything "orthodoxy" has yet offered to the world. But it might come through the one daring to take issue with "orthodoxy." It might come through the one who, with a daring, undying faith in God, steps outside of the circumscribed limits and bounds

UNSAFE BRIDGES ~

Recently I was driving from Pomeroy, Wash., to Walla Walla, Wash., in my car. To the right of the road were the tracks of the Union Pacific Railroad. I heard a train approaching, and soon saw the engine with its load of cars following. There was a low bridge just ahead, and you can imagine my horror when I saw the bridge give way throwing the engine and several cars into the gulley below.

"Unsafe Bridges," I thought, and my note-book came out and a notation was made to write an article on "Unsafe Bridges." The world today is in a desperate condition. Yet it is not a hopeless condition. If we depend upon anything in the past, and if we have no more hope than we have had in the past, and if we discover no more definite or solid anchor than we have been able to find in the past, then, of course, the situation really seems hopeless. For train after train has been wrecked on "unsafe bridges" of human philosophies.

This story and that story has been offered, all of which were intended to carry us safely over some precipice or otherwise dangerous piece of roadway. Had there been no bridge there, our train could not have travelled to the other side. And then, we tried the bridge we had never tried before. And both train, crew, and passengers went into certain disaster. The bridge was unsafe.

In national affairs, we must look for a safe bridge to carry us over the present crisis. If we cannot find that safe bridge, then civilization will be wrecked. None in his sober senses would admit that the human race today knows the answer to the international problems which surround us. The answer is not known. It exists all right, but none knows where to look for it. Naturally, when human efforts have all failed, there is but one source to which to look—a divine or supernatural help. This has not been done to date. Religious bridge after religious bridge has been offered, but none have cared to trust themselves either nationally or internationally on any of these bridges. There is not a nation on the face of the earth today which would care to trust itself in the hands of any religious philosophy offered to the world today by any religious organization, with the exception perhaps of this one.

Not even the United States, the fairest and most God-loving of all lands would care to do that. And if it did care to, it would not know nor indeed could not know which religious bridge to trust its future upon. For all these religious bridges are unsafe. They cannot be trusted. And the reason they are not to be trusted is because they have never yet been able to carry the load they are supposed to carry. They have all failed to demonstrate to this world that they are safe. They have not yet proven that they know anything about a Supreme Power, big enough to carry this world through the crisis in which it finds itself. They have not yet found a "safe" religious bridge. Just as soon as men and nations find that bridge, they will travel over it.

Such a bridge exists. Such a bridge has always existed. It is safe. It is sure. It is of such structure that the moment men and women see it, they know it was built for the purpose of carrying a heavy load. But men and women are a bit skeptical today. They have remembered this "unsafe" bridge and that "unsafe" bridge, and they look somewhat askance at some new bridge upon which they are asked to trust their whole train of life. But, thanks be to God for ever revealing this great truth, the moment they see this bridge they step out upon it, and they are safe. That is the bridge your writer has been put upon the earth to call attention to. Not to build the bridge, because that bridge has a Builder far greater than any mortal can be. But to call attention to that Bridge—that is all.

That bridge is the Spirit of God.

It is safe. It has never been tried by the individual or the nation. Instead of trying this "safe" bridge they have risked their all on the type of bridges the train I saw went through. Just so long as the load is not too heavy, the bridge stands. But given an unusual load, or an additional strain, it collapses. And so, every religious bridge the world has seen to date, has collapsed under someone's load. The bridges were built to carry a great load, or so their builders thought. But to date they have not been able to carry these loads. The load of world war is a load that a true bridge of God should carry. Yet no minister, priest or church is capable of handling this bitter world situation today. No church service can carry it. No church philosophy is big enough or broad enough, or true enough to answer this problem and carry it over the bridge of life. They have collapsed. And the reason they have collapsed is because the material from which the bridge was built, was not strong enough for the load imposed upon it.

The story of Jesus Christ is not a big enough story to hold up human woes and heartaches. The story of the Virgin Mary is not suited to the toils and cares of present-day life. These are "unsafe" bridges. They give under the strain and throw their followers into the ditch with their leaders. A hope and faith in a life beyond the tomb is not sufficient to care for the shipwrecked homes and lives today. You can stand on the street corner and preach that Jesus died for the sins of the world until the crows come home. And people will pass you by and say—"maybe so brother, but, I'm not interested." And that is not the fault of these millions who pass you by. It is the fault of the story you come to them with. You give them truths of God and see how very fast they will absorb them. You show them a safe bridge, and see how fast they will trust their all upon it. And God is a safe bridge. A "crucified" god is an unsafe bridge. A virgin is an unsafe bridge. A priest is an unsafe bridge. A preacher has an unsafe philosophy. And what this world needs is a safe philosophy. And there is no safe philosophy outside of the Spirit of God. And those who preach a "crucified" god cannot know about the existence of the Great Spirit of God. They do not know of this safe bridge which can carry all their load for them.

A "home in heaven" is an unsafe bridge. Forgiveness of sins is another unsafe bridge. The Lord's Supper, the Mass, the Confession basket or box or whatever it is, is a very unsafe bridge, and those poor honest souls who trust in such a structure, cannot possibly know God, for God knows nothing about such a structure whatsoever. No man-made organization is a safe bridge upon which you should trust your all. Better deal directly with God than with a church. When you deal directly with God, you know you are on a safe bridge. But when you deal with a "system of religion" be it Protestant or Catholic, you do not know the bridge is safe. You only guess. You only hope. You only believe what someone else has asked you to believe without making any effort of your own to find out. If you are a Catholic, you have been told that it is wrong to find out. But how foolish that is. With the great Spirit of God all around you and all about you, why—why—why should you not trust yourself on such a Bridge without the aid or assistance of any preacher or priest? You cannot answer me—can you? Of course you can't. You know, and I know that God exists. You know and I know that God is abundantly able to carry you over every chasm. Yet you will not deal directly with God Himself. You go running to some priest or preacher, and expect him to have some influence with God, in your behalf. For God's sake men and women, be just that. You know God lives. Then talk with God. Every day. Every hour. And if you want a real experience of the Power of God, use my first affirmation. It will not be long then until you will know the Truth, and the Truth shall make you free.

Hitler and God

I notice a statement again today in which Hitler alludes to himself as "God almighty and I." Seems to me we heard that before. "Gott mit uns" was the battle-cry of the old Kaiser, was it not? Yet Gott did not help him much, for he went into servitude where he still is. England will also be praying to "God" to bring victory to that land too. Isn't it funny how these warring nations, all of which are making plans to blast as effectively as they can their fellow human beings into eternity, all call upon God to help them in their hellish efforts. May I suggest that God knows nothing about that sort of thing. He cannot, and would not help that sort of thing if He could. It goes to show how little God knows about that sort of thing, and how little these nations know of the Power of the Spirit of God. They fool themselves. Yet the Church of England is the official church of England, and this organization it is which leads the country into praying to "God" to bring it victory. All of which means that no church to date, which believes in a "crucified god" can possibly do one thing towards stopping the brutal thing now going on in Europe. Those who are taking no active part in this frightful carnage may be doing more than those who are in it, to bring the Power of God into play against it all. But the Power of God will never manifest on the side of either Britain or Germany. It will manifest to stop both sides.

An Amazed Doctor

From Alabama we received a letter recently which stated as follows: "Thanks many times for your wonderful help. I was very ill when I first wrote you for help. The doctors had given me up. After you sent Lessons One, Two and Three, I made a big change. My doctor is amazed." The Spirit of God has amazed thousands of doctors in the past ten years. Many prominent doctors today are recognizing the invisible Healing Power in Mankind.

They are close to the truth, and they are very smart for recognizing that truth. God-in-you, can heal anything if the "God-in-you" is directed aright. That applies to every problem in life whether the problem be financial, domestic, or one of health. God is ever there to bring the complete liberation of us all. What a thought. What a truth. What freedom.

The Finns

It begins to look as if our efforts against Hitler and Stalin are bearing much fruit, for the Finns have amazed the world in their stand against Red Russia. When a large nation like Red Russia attacks a peaceful little country like Finland, it brings down upon itself the indignation and the disgust of the whole world. Yet that is the nation which is attempting to drive the very name of God from off the face of the earth. It is a laughable attempt to watch. For Stalin, or no other individual or nation can ever do anything against God, for God is the life of every individual in that nation. Those poor devils there do not want to fight. They don't know what it's all about. But Mr. Stalin and Mr. Hitler, they both know even now that they are on the losing side. What a tragedy it all is though. And the Spirit of God just waiting to reveal its presence to them both.

SECRET OF REALIZATION

Many thousand copies of this famous little book have gone all over the world. It carries with it a message of dynamic power and brings peace to those who read it. "Psychiana" is a Movement of the Spirit of God on the earth, and the aim of this Magazine is to assist "Psychiana" in making the Spirit of God a vital living Power in the lives of our fellow-men. The Movement is non-denominational. Its Members comprise adherents to every faith in the world. It wants to help them all. We have no "articles of faith" nor do we have creeds or rituals. We know man exists, and we know the Spirit of God exists. We know man can know the Power of the Spirit of God while on this earth, and through this Movement God is being made a Living Reality to men and women of every race and creed all over the world.

Whenever it is necessary, this Magazine speaks very plainly. Many traditions of "orthodoxy" are shown for what they really are. Whenever we find ancient myth and superstition masquerading as being of the Spirit of God, we bring the facts to the world, kindly but forcefully. We believe the Power of the Spirit of God is abundantly able to step into this desperate and discouraging world picture, and bring a permanent peace. To this end we are striving, and as the Spirit of God reveals Itself to us, we reveal It to others without fear.

Members of every church are cordially invited to come and find and use the Power of the Spirit of God with us. An infinite love for all is the motivating Power of this entire Movement. Through this Movement the Spirit of God is making Its presence known on earth.
The Editors.

Questions and Answers

Ques: Why do you never mention the Bible in your writings or Lessons. Do you not believe it to be the Word of God?

Ans: The Christian bible, I take it you refer to. You must remember that the eleven major systems of religion all have their "bibles" which they consider just as much the Word of God as do Christians. The Old Testament is a history of the Jewish people a long time ago. I am not in the slightest degree interested in the travels of the Jews in the Land of Israel that long ago. The New Testament is a group of absolutely anonymous writings. No one knows where they came from nor does anyone know who wrote most of them. They were put into the "canon" of scripture, not by divine inspiration or revelation, but by a vote of Catholic bishops a very long time ago. I am not interested in the New Testament as all my time is very effectively occupied telling men and women of the present existence of the Spirit of God. Hence I can have no extra time to give to the study of any of the "sacred writings" of any major system of religion. The salvation of men and women, and the bringing to them of the Power of God is much more important than these old bibles.

Ques: Please give me the names of the sixteen "crucified gods" you so often mention. Also the dates.

Ans: It would take too much space to give you all information regarding these 16 "gods." Read "GLEAMS OVER THE HORIZON." Here are their names — Chrishna, Sakya, Thammuz, Wittoba, Iao, Hesus, Quetzalcoatl, Quirinus, Prometheus, Thulis, Indra, Alcestis, Atys, Crite, Bali, Mithra, and there are about 20 others, too. This proves beyond a shadow of a doubt that the idea of a god being crucified for the sins of the world was a pagan religious tradition, far antedating the Christian religion. Not nice facts to know, but facts nevertheless. As these pagan myths are exposed, the truths of God will be known. You may rest assured that God knows nothing of any of these or any other "crucified god." They originated in pagan and oriental minds, and they are worthless, all these traditions, insofar as bringing God to the world goes. I include the Christ of the Christian religion in the list.

Ques: Why, if you know so much about God, cannot you raise the dead like Jesus did?

Ans: If you could but see my files you would know that I'm raising plenty of the "dead." Dead in religious superstition. Dead in the false security which comes from believing in a "dead" god. Dead from their ears down because, instead of knowing the absolute Power which is in the Realm of the Spirit of God, these good souls are satisfied to stay dead, believing in a dead god. Many of those, my friend are being raised to newness of Life, not through the merits or virtues of a very questionable deity, but through the actual Spirit of God, which Spirit is manifesting on this earth through this simple though dynamic Teaching. I would like to raise you that way.

Ques: What do you think of the C.I.O.?

Ans: I believe it to be communistic in essence. I have no use for communism, fascism, nazism, or any otherism which is opposed to the fundamentals of Americanism. Our system of Government may not be perfect, but it comes closer to being perfect and God-like than any other government I know of, and I have seen most of them in action in their own countries. The seeds of freedom, righteousness, justice and love are in the American Government to a greater degree than they are in any other government. It is the only type of government which can survive, and allow the people religious and other freedom. I have no use for anything which is communistic.

Ques: Where do you get all the degrees you use after your name?

Ans: That's none of your business. I seldom use any degree other than the D. D. and I assure you I have each and every degree which is published and they are all from Chartered Institutions in their respective States. You did not ask this question because you really wanted to know, you asked it to be smart and sarcastic. It might interest you to know that, on account of having written "GLEAMS OVER THE HORIZON" I was recently given an honorary membership in the Eugene Field Foundation and made an honorary Member of the American Association of Authors and Publishers.

Ques: How long will it take the world to know of the existence of the Spirit of God as disclosed by "PSYCHIANA"?

Ans: I do not know. It all depends upon how fast I can get these truths of God to the public. We are growing very fast these days and more and more free publicity is being given to us. In one week recently, 5 different magazines and newspapers wrote us up. Some day soon, some large periodical or news syndicate will really call the attention of the world to what is going on here in Moscow, Idaho. I don't ever worry about that though. I do this day, and every day as the Spirit of God leads me to. I can very safely leave the future in the hands of the God I know and serve. Thanks for that question.

Ques: What do you think of cigarette advertising over the radio?

Ans: Most of it is a lot of baloney, as Brother Smith would say. It is not a matter of which is the best cigarette, it's a case of who can write the cleverest advertising copy and who can throw the most intriguing "come-along" suggestions. And this applies to coffee, and other things "plugged" over the "raddio" as Brother Smith would say once more.

Hitler's Latest

The latest blast from Herr Hitler is—"God will be with us in 1940 as He so wonderfully demonstrated in 1939 by taking us under His wings and protecting us as He did." That man is crazy. For if God ever protects anyone who ruthlessly blasts into eternity innocent human beings as Hitler has this world wants nothing to do with such a god. The old god of the ancient Jews, one "Yahweh," used to do that, but that idea of God has no hold on anyone except mad-men like Hitler. What Herr Hitler will find is that the Infinite Spirit of God will very effectively destroy him and his ilk by peaceful methods. Mr. Hitler may think he is in tune with God, as many others do, but you may depend upon one thing—whenever you find someone who really knows God, you will find that one working for peace, by the sword of the spirit, and not by the kind of sword Hitler and Stalin use. And the sword of the spirit of God will be demonstrated to be much more powerful than any instrument Mr. Hitler has been able to use or invent.

NOT JESUS--BUT GOD ~

I was very much impressed by an article which appeared in The Pathfinder, a national magazine published in Washington, D. C., on December 23rd. The article was an editorial which appeared on the above date. By the way, the Pathfinder is the most quoted magazine in existence, and I should like to see it in every "Psychiana" home. It's a good magazine.

Well, this editorial was on the order of a "Christmas" editorial, and the substance of it was that Christianity was "in suspense." The editor bemoaned the fact that in spite of Christianity, the world is in the most hopeless condition it has ever been in. And then, the editor made the same mistake so many are prone to make when seeking a solution to this earth's problems. He stated—"The time is here for men and nations to look to the Star over Bethlehem and listen to the voice of the heralding angel."

But the editor is wrong. Millions of honest God-seeking men and women have been doing that for 2000 years, and the result of looking in that direction does not bid fair to encourage us to look further along those lines. We must find another direction in which to look. Long before the Christian religion was ever heard of, the Hindoo also saw "a star in the East," and wise men and shepherds followed that star until it came to the place where God, in the form of a human baby lay in a manger. Shepherds too were abiding in fields watching their flocks by night when they were awakened by angels who proclaimed the "star in the east" and they too followed that star. And they, too, to this date have far more followers than has Christianity.

They too have a "god" who was born in a manger on the 25th of December, 1400 years before Christianity was ever heard of. So, then, two stars (and more) have appeared, and two (in reality about 32) "gods" have appeared on the earth.

herds, both being God, both descending into hell, both being crucified, both being raised from the dead, and both, at this very moment are, we are told by each religion, in heaven, sitting at the right hand of their Father God. In my book "Gleams Over the Horizon" evidence which is absolutely incontrovertible is presented, proving that the entire story of the "star in the east" with its virgin born "god" is nothing more nor less than pagan tradition. That is exactly what I mean. And that is exactly what I want these United States to know. Because, if that whole story of God is not true, then the truth lies somewhere else, and this world has not yet had the true picture of God ever given to it.

One look at the world leads us to believe that is most certainly a fact. The editor of Pathfinder is wrong. It is not the "star" the world needs to look at. It needs to look at no "crucified god" for we have had ample time to save this world many times over. What this world does need is to discard these stories of God being killed by anyone, and then, after a full investigation, to discover the falsity (or the truth) of all such stories, let the world do what it should have done centuries ago—believe in and prove the existence here and now of God—an invisible spirit far too great to be killed by anyone.

God exists. Make no mistake about that. But God does not exist, and never has existed as either Jesus Christ, Chrishna, Prometheus or any other of the score of traditional "world-saviors." For some reason or other, the mind of man in past ages either would not, or was not capable of grasping God as an ever-existing Spirit of Life. So then, priests and others who engineered religious systems, manufactured a god who could be visible to the naked eye. They had to have a visible god, perhaps because their intelligence was not such that they could conceive of an invisible God.

history or tradition report about 32 "gods" during the past few thousand years, and no evidence whatsoever of the actual existence can be found. As a result of this crucified god theory, we have today in the United States, about 400 different sects, denominations and "splits" and no two of them agree on anything. The Catholic church says that Jesus Christ ordained the first Pope, and the Protestant church says he did nothing of the sort. And there you have it. And while all these agencies of "god" fight and quarrel amongst themselves, this world is rushing headlong to hell and not a single church, nor indeed all churches combined, can do one single thing to stop it. This in itself should be sufficient proof that the god the church has certainly is not the Great Creative Spirit behind this universe.

The whole story is false. And the message of "Psychiana" is to replace that old story, heathen in its origin as can be proven, with the actual and literal truths of God. What we say in all probability makes the churches fighting mad. But we cannot help that. The "star" did not work. The "god" the "star" came to reveal has failed this world. In fact the world as a whole is not interested in the story. But this world would be interested if the true story of God could be brought to it. We have proven that here in Moscow, Idaho. Our work is to bring to men and women notice of that fact that God, the Great Spirit which created man and the universe, exists here and now, and can be found by all. When the invisible Spirit which is God, is found, then it is abundantly able to bring into every human life, whatever that life needs for its complete happiness and abundant supply.

And if God can do that in individual lives, the problems of nations have their solution too. But as long as men look to any "crucified god" regardless of which one they look to, they will be disappointed. For every one of such stories is but a copy of other such stories which existed in religions we now call "heathen" or "pagan." These may be unpleasant facts, and they undoubtedly are. But if they are facts, the world should know of them. And unpleasant as our duty may be in stating these facts, I shall, as long as I can prove these facts, bring them to public attention. I never have considered the cost. For I know that if I am correct, then the invisible Power of the Spirit of God will protect me in whatever way may be necessary. The greatest spiritual revolution this world has ever known will come in when the facts we teach are universally accepted.

Every system of religion in this country is based upon the existence of Jesus Christ as God. Then if that story is not true, it means that every religious system in this country is founded upon falsity and not truth. I make that claim. I am prepared to prove that claim. And while the proving of it may be uncomfortable, yet, Truth will always win, and as a result of this Movement, before long, this world will have completely discarded the story of Jesus Christ as God, and it will bask in the sunlight of God—the True Spirit of God living on this earth in the consciousness of every man and woman. That day has to come. It may come in my time and it may not. But it will come. The evolution of the human race will most assuredly bring that day in.

So I would say to the editor of the Pathfinder—do not tell people to look at any "star" any more, but rather direct their thoughts to the Infinite God-Spirit which created all stars, not just one.

John Adams

In 1776 in a letter to Mrs. Adams, John Adams said: "Yesterday the greatest question was decided which ever was debated in America; and a greater perhaps never was, or never will be, decided among men. A resolution was passed without one dissenting colony, that those United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States." John Adams was right. But there is a greater problem now facing those United States. Shall we allow Communism no matter in what form it appears, to get root in this fair land? If we do, 'twill take much longer to uproot it than it took to give it root. For Communism and God are forever separate. God lives to bring peace. Communism lives to do what Stalin and Red Russia are doing today—destroy. God save America from Communism, Naziism, and Fascism.

Mr. Drew Pearson

While at the Mayflower Hotel in Washington, D. C., recently, I had a very fine visit with Mr. Drew Pearson, one of the writers of the Washington "Merry-go-Round." Mr. Pearson is a very charming gentleman, and is a thinker. You will never see him continually pouring out a string of vituperation against everything and everybody, whether he knows anything about them or not. The "Merry-go-Round" is the most widely-read of all the columns. It deserves to be. It is clear thinking by two men who know how to think clearly, not just tear down and poke fun at others. That sort of "columning" never does a newspaper very much good. If your local newspaper does not carry the "Washington Merry-go-Round" I suggest you write a letter to the Editor telling him how much you would like to see that column in his paper.

New Views

When Abraham Lincoln was writing to Horace Greeley in August, 1862, he made this statement: "I shall try to correct errors when shown to be errors, and I shall try to adopt new views so fast as they shall appear to be new views." President Lincoln was a big enough man to do that. When a new conception of God is being brought to the world, and is demonstrating its truth and Power by an overwhelming mass of evidence, many, of orthodox faiths there are, who, though they must admit God is speaking through this new conception of religious truth, hesitate to receive it. Old religious views of God are out. They have failed to bring God to the world. The new should be given a chance. They might do that.

Koahihuana

(There is a God Within Me)
There is a God within me
And, how do I know?
I know when I hear a song
Leaving the throat of a bird,
Like a silver arrow
Lifting through the blue.
I know when I see
Slim lines of rain
Reaching over the edge of the Mesa
And falling on Spring-green fields.
I know when I hear the whispering steps
Of a mountain stream, running
To meet the valley-mist at dawn.
And see the flash of trout
Climbing the pear-spray of a waterfall.
I know when I see that great star-path
Through the night sky and feel a stir
In my soul that I know is not myself,
But is of a God moving about
In that invisible Kiva
My devotion has builded in my breast.

"SHALL WE KNOW EACH OTHER BEYOND THE TOMB?"

By Dr. Robinson

Would you like to know the answer to this question? Dr. Robinson in this book gives you the answer as he sees it. It is a very beautiful piece of writing on this subject of our loved ones who have gone on before to a far better world than this one is. This book costs $1.00 and may be had from our International Headquarters in Moscow, Idaho.

which "orthodoxy" has set up, and blazes a new trail to God.

Such an one is far more apt to bring to this world truths of God than is the one who wishes to continue to believe what some church organization or other has insisted that he do believe. Personally, I believe very little of what any orthodox church teaches. I do not believe these things to be either original or true. But, in the light of what we have been able to accomplish over the past ten years, must this Movement be stopped just because it threatens to upset the structure "orthodoxy" has builded? This world is on its way to hell in spite of anything and everything "orthodoxy" has to offer to it. And nothing "orthodoxy" can do can stop it.

But we of "Psychiana" have very ably demonstrated that there is a conception of God which can be grasped and used, literally and positively, here and now. It has been more than abundantly demonstrated that human lives by the hundreds of thousands have been changed for the better by this Teaching. Is it then to be stopped because it denies the very foundation stones of "orthodoxy"? I don't think so. Moreover, I do not believe the U. S. Government will attempt to stop it, at this stage of the game.

Every forward-looking religious movement has had this same fight with "orthodoxy." Mrs. Eddy went through it. They even tried to prove her insane. She was harassed, tried, buffeted around in an attempt to drive her out of the religious picture. Yet Christian Science still lives as one of the major religious systems of the present day. So will

"Psychiana" live too. And the day will come in which those who have been most ardent in their persecution of this Movement will come to it, on their knees, begging for forgiveness.

For the Founder of this Movement happens to know a little bit about the Power of the Spirit of God. What he knows he is going to tell to others. He is going to tell it as long as he has life with which to tell it. He knows, better than anyone else knows, just what had been and still is involved in this determination. If he were any different sort of a leader he would not be worth the name of leader.

I wish every Government man knew what we are trying to do. I wish every capitalist here in these beloved United States knew the innermost desire of our hearts. But time will tell that story. Time alone

In this picture Dr. Robinson is speaking to a capacity house in the Trinity Auditorium in Los Angeles. The doors had to be closed one hour before the Doctor began to speak. This should be duplicated all over America. When it is, this world will know of this outpouring of the Spirit of God on mankind. Soon, when the Power of the Spirit of God is fully known, wars will cease, and as this message of peace and Power becomes known for what it really is, men and women will find and use the Power of the Spirit of God in such numbers that God will finally dwell on this earth among men. God is ready to do that at any time. All men and women need to do is to recognize the present existence of the Spirit of God—in them.

will heap honors on the head of the one who now is fighting for the truths of the Spirit of God.

There is a conception of God which is perfectly capable of driving from the face of this earth, all wars, sorrows, sinning, sighing, injustice, brutality and the other allied sins of the human race. And "orthodoxy" does not have that conception. It has nothing which can make God real to the human race. Therefore, if "orthodoxy" does not have that, some other Movement is bound to arise which does have it. For God will never leave this world to itself, without some man or woman who can rise up, and, strong in the strength of the Spirit of God, will declare to all the human race that the power of God can, and will save us all if we will but allow it to.

This world has been fooling round with "crucified gods" for many thousands of years. Yet look at it today. Have they done anything at all towards bettering the world? Have they demonstrated any of the Power of the Spirit of God? To ask the question is to answer it. Yet God still lives. The Power of God can save mankind. Shall I, then, just because of a bit of persecution, stay my hand? Shall I, because the church does not like what I am doing, stop this Teaching? I don't think so. I know I won't. And I believe that under the Stars and Stripes, this "Psychiana" Teaching will be allowed to broadcast its message, until the whole world begins to see the Light, streaming down, not from the cross of Jesus Christ, but from the Great White Throne whereupon dwells the ever-living Spirit of God.

I do not believe your "Weekly" will be held in the local Post Office five days again. If you do not get it when you should get it, notify me at once. If your mail is interfered with in any way, notify me. If you run into a postmaster or post-office which refuses to issue a money-order to "Psychiana" notify me by wire, giving name of individual and post-office, also time of day, and other details.

After nearly eleven years of constant operation by mail, I think I can say to you that at last, those who were most active against us, are beginning to wonder just what "Psychiana" is all about. They know, as anyone with a particle of sense knows, that there must be something about "Psychiana" which causes it to grow as it is growing. All the things said about us cannot be true, for no man ever lived who could be as bad as some folks have said I am. And when too many people get to knocking a thing or a person, get ready for that thing or that person to appear in its true form. This, "Psychiana" is doing, and, by the Power of the Spirit of God, it will continue to do until the day comes when we can operate without fear or favor. In that day, this world will rejoice in the freedom which was always at hand, but which it could not receive because of false pictures of God given to it by those good and well-meaning souls who have foolishly thought that God never could be known here on the earth.

If no one ever does any more harm than "Psychiana" will do to anyone, no one has much to worry about. It may throw overboard a few old supposedly religious traditions, but it will not even throw them over until it can replace them with the Power of the Spirit of God. This, we can do, and are doing, and shall continue to do by the help of the Spirit of God.

With Our... Students

Now shall we see who the next one is from. Well this is from Southport, Florida, from Student E. N. Davis. Another one of those "miracles" which, if they were to happen in the Catholic church, would be broadcast all over the world. They happen here many times daily, but we get no such publicity. We don't want it either. It just goes to show the difference between the true and the sham. In its palmyest days the Roman Catholic church, or no other church ever has been able to duplicate the work of God which is being done here in Moscow, Idaho. We can show more actual results for the Spirit of God in human lives over the past ten years than all religions combined can show.

Yet because we believe in a LIVING God instead of a DEAD God, we are "racketeers" and we should be deported.

Maybe so. But may God in His infinite goodness send to this world a few more "racketeers" like I am. Remember what I said about the word "wonderful" in the last letter? Well read this one:

"Just a word of gratitude and thanks. Your Teaching is wonderful. I had a Black Widow bite last Monday, and what do you think? It did not amount to anything. Just about like an ant bite. I am finding the God-Law and using it, and will say again it is the most wonderful Power I have ever experienced."

Thank you friend Davis for that letter. Though you are bitten by the most poisonous adder, the health of the Spirit of God in you is far superior to that adder. The life in the black-widow spider is, in essence, part of the creative God-Spirit in you. A Black Widow will never kill one knowing the Power of the Spirit of God in his or her life. Thanks a lot, and may God be with you through all your days. He will be I know. Now, we jump over to Georgia, and we find a letter from Mrs. Mathew Morris of Savannah. You'll note the word "wonderful" there again. Remember, you who are reading this, we receive such letters as these in such quantities that we have no room in which to keep them any more. Is there not a wealthy Student somewhere or other who would like to help us build a bigger building? If there is please get in touch with me at once. Here is Mrs. Morris' letter:

"I have enjoyed these Lessons more than any set of lessons on religion I have ever read. They have given me an insight into the most wonderful conception of God I have ever heard of. True, it is scarcely more than a conception, as of course I am just beginning—I realize that. Thanks a lot for putting me on the path that has given me a world of peace, comfort, and joy."

I am very glad, Mrs. Morris, that these Lessons have revealed to you a conception of God, clearer and more wonderful than you have ever heard of before. They always do that. And the reason they do it is because the Spirit of God was behind the writing of those Lessons, as the same Spirit is behind everything I do. My whole life is at the disposal of God. I care for nothing else. For when I could not find God through church dogma and creed, and false theories, I FOUND GOD BY TALKING DIRECTLY TO GOD. And I want every Student to make it a daily habit of talking with God. Not on your knees. Not to a god "in the sky" but standing on your feet, looking into the open heavens, if you will, and there, talk directly to God, who lives in you, and there are no limitations to the Power of God when you do that.

Write a Check

If you need anything in this life, write a check for it. For there is an abundance of every good thing for you in the Realm of the Spirit of God. That Realm lives in you. It gives you life. It is God in you. Then draw upon the Realm of God for whatever it is you need. The check will be honored.
